2012 MARKEL/USEF YOUNG HORSE DRESSAGE SELECTION TRIAL

Eligibility: Current USEF/FEI/WBFSH rules will be followed. Riders who are non-U.S. citizens will be allowed to ride in the Selection Trials, but the horse may or may not be eligible for the Short List or entry to the World Breeding Championships as representing the United States if ridden by a non-U.S. citizen (final decision regarding eligibility to be determined by USEF and the WBFSH). All horses MUST be U.S.-owned. Horses MUST have valid registration papers with a member of a national studbook, which is recognized by the World Breeding Federation of Sport Horses (WBFSH). A copy of the horse's breed registration papers must accompany entry. Please refer to complete published Selection Procedures for complete eligibility requirements.

Qualification: The qualifying period shall begin January 1, 2012 and ends the day preceding the first Selection Trial class to be entered. A series of competitions throughout the U.S. have been designated as Qualifying Competitions for USEF Developing Dressage Programs, which includes the Markel/USEF Young Horse Dressage Program. A list of these Qualifying Competitions is available on the Federation website or by contacting the USEF Dressage Department. Qualifying scores for the Selection Trials may only be earned at these designated Qualifying Competitions in designated "Markel/USEF Qualifying" classes using the Final Test for each age division. Qualifying tests must be judged by a panel of at least two (2) FEI or USEF "S" officials. A minimum overall score of 7.2 must be earned for consideration to the Selection Trial. At least one (1) qualifying score must be earned which meets all qualification requirements outlined herein. If scores are obtained prior to Selection Trial entry closing date, copies of the entire qualifying test(s) must be submitted with entry to the Selection Trial for verification. Otherwise, copies of entire qualifying test(s) must be presented at the Selection Trial for verification prior to being allowed to compete.

Qualification at the Selection Trials: An open FEI Young Horse class may be offered at each competition which hosts a Selection Trial, if held the day preceding the first Selection Trial class (see "Selection Trial Procedure", below), and this open class may be used to obtain a qualifying score. Only a maximum of the top four (4)-placing horse/rider combinations in each age division which earn a minimum score of 7.2 may move on to the Selection Trial classes. If one of the top four (4) horse/rider combinations declines, the next horse/rider combination meeting the minimum score requirement will be invited to participate in the Trial.

Selection Trial Format: The Markel/USEF Young Horse Dressage Selection Trials will consist of TWO (2) classes for each age division (Five- and Six-Year-Old): the Preliminary Test (will count as 40% of overall average score); and the Final Test (will count as 60% of overall average score). All Selection Trial entries must compete in both the Preliminary and Final Tests. A Champion and Reserve Champion for each age division will be awarded at each of the three (3) Selection Trials.

Please refer to published Selection Procedures for complete eligibility requirements. These procedures are available on the Markel/USEF Young Horse Dressage Program page of the USEF website at www.usef.org.

USDF Statement on Animal Welfare

The United States Dressage Federation, Inc. (USDF), a federation of over 125 independent organizations throughout the United States with a membership in excess of 33,000 members, supports the concept of ethical treatment of animals.

Dressage is a classical method of training horses, based upon the horse's natural responses, as carried out in a gradual, planned program during which the horse's athletic abilities are improved in a systematic manner. As a result, the horse becomes capable, comfortable, and responsive in partnership with the rider without the use of force. Dressage competition at various levels of achievement is the ultimate test of the training program to determine whether the desired harmony between horse and rider has been achieved.

The rules pertaining to dressage competition prohibit the use of artificial appliances, training aids, and drugs, which would force the horse to submit. Instead, the emphasis is upon training and a cooperative partnership with the rider. Major competitions are carefully monitored to assure that there is no unnecessary force or harshness displayed.

Unlike other horse sports in which horses enter training at a relatively immature state, dressage training is usually not seriously begun until the horse is three or four. The top levels of achievement require five or more years of progressive training and it is not unusual to see horses in international competition in their late teens. This, in itself, places a premium on good care and soundness throughout the horse's life.

While supporting the concept of animal welfare in its broadest form, the United States Dressage Federation, Inc., also recognizes that it is unrealistic to ascribe human emotions and responses to the horse which in its wild state is a creature of flight, living a hard and precarious existence. Under domestication, the horse is assured of ample food, water, and shelter, as well as protection against infectious diseases and damaging parasites, thus leading a longer and healthier life with a high rate of survival.

As an educational organization, USDF has numerous programs, which teach people how to pursue the accepted, humane training methods. A program of certifying instructors also emphasizes protecting the horse's welfare in pursuit of dressage training.

(Note: USDF business members can own horses but cannot compete as riders with their USDF BM.) Individuals cannot compete at a USEF-licensed/USDF-recognized competition with a USDF Education Membership.

Horses competing at USEF-licensed/USDF-recognized competitions must have either a USDF Horse Identification (HID) number or a USDF Lifetime Horse Registration (LHR). Proper credentials or verification certificates must be presented to the competition secretary.

Riders and owners wishing to participate in a USEF-licensed/USDF-recognized competition, and not able to present the competition secretary with verification of a USDF membership or NM identification, and USDF LHR or USDF HID, must complete a USDF Competition Affidavit Form and pay the $5 affidavit filing fee. Also exempt are horses ridden in leadline, exhibitions, games and races, classes for 4-H members, walk-trot, academy and opportunity classes.

Memberships Defined

Participating Membership (PM): A membership issued to an individual directly by USDF. The membership year is December 1 through November 30. PMs are available for 1-year ($75), 5-years ($300), or life ($1,500). A USDF Youth Participating Membership (YPM) is available for individuals who have not reached their 21st birthday by December 1 of the current membership year ($60). A PM allows the member to compete at USEF-licensed/USDF-recognized competitions and to participate as a rider and/or owner/lessee for all Adequan®/USDF Year-End Awards, Great American Insurance Group/USDF Breeders' Championship Series Finals and the Great American Insurance Group/USDF Regional Dressage Championship program.

Group Membership (GM): A membership issued to an individual by USDF when the member name and dues are submitted to USDF through an affiliate Group Member Organization (GMO). The GM year begins December 1 and ends November 30. A GM allows the member to compete at USEF-licensed/USDF-recognized competitions and participate in the USDF Rider Awards program.

Business Membership (BM): A membership that runs December 1 through November 30 and is issued to a business or organization directly by USDF. The USDF BM ($200) offers a wider variety of advertising benefits. BMs satisfy requirements of horse ownership only.

Education Membership (EM): A membership issued to an individual directly by USDF. This online education only membership expires 12 months after the date joined. This membership type does NOT allow an individual to compete at a USEF-licensed/USDF-recognized competition.

Non-Member (NM) Identification Number: For each USDF NM owner/lessee and USDF NM rider there will be a USDF NM fee of $25 and a USDF NM form per competition that must be collected by the show secretary and submitted to USDF along with the USDF Report of Fees document and the $5 affidavit fee if the person cannot provide a copy of their USDF NM card. Owners/lessees or riders exempt from the NM number requirements are also exempt from paying the USDF NM fee. If there are multiple owners of a horse and all are NMs, only one of the owners must pay the NM fee. If the horse has at least one owner who is a current USDF member there is no NM fee assessed. Competition management will be invoiced for all applicable USDF NM fees not received with the USDF post competition paperwork, along with a report listing all USDF NMs. Competition management is then required to submit the NM fees within 30 days to the USDF. An individual with a USDF NM identification number is not eligible for any USDF membership benefits. Once a USDF NM number has been assigned, a USDF NM card can be obtained from the USDF website.

Horse Identification (HID) Number: A one-time tracking number for horses ($25). Scores earned by a horse with an HID number will be recorded, but will NOT be counted towards Adequan®/USDF Year-End Awards. A horse with an HID number is not eligible to compete in Great American Insurance Group/USDF Regional qualifying or championship classes or Great American Insurance Group/USDF Breeders' Championship Series Finals. An HID number can be upgraded to a Lifetime Horse Registration (LHR) for a fee of $70. If a horse has a USDF LHR it does not need an HID number. An HID number is a one-time fee that does not need to be renewed.

Lifetime Horse Registration (LHR): A horse with an LHR ($95) is eligible for Adequan®/USDF Year-End Awards, and eligible to compete at Great American Insurance Group/USDF Breeders' Championship Series Finals and Great American Insurance Group/USDF Regional qualifying and championship classes, assuming requirements for the owner and rider are met. If a horse has an LHR it does not need an HID number. An LHR does not need to be renewed.
